Hawaiian

Electric

Company.

The cleanest, brightest and really, in the long run, the cheapest and best light for use in the family residence, is the incandescent electric light. Safe; nothing could be safer. A few days ago a prominent gentleman of Honolulu came rushing down to the office of the Electric Company and said: "Give me figures for wiring my house, and I want it done at once; no more lamps for me. Last night a lamp tipped over and it came so near setting fire to the house and burning my children and I take no more risks."

This is the sentiment of quite a number in the past few weeks, who have ordered their houses fitted with the perfect light.

Just think it over and make up your mind that you want the best and safest light; send for the Hawaiian Electric Company and tell them what you want.

We have a complete stock of everything in this line and have just received a lot of the very latest designs in chandeliers.

THE CHILDREN.

Nauseous and bad-tasting medicine is objectionable to adults and a horror to children. No doubt its frequent lack of good effect is, at least partly due to the disgust it excites in them—the shock to the system. This is especially true of Cod Liver Oil, in the form of the ordinary old-fashioned mixtures so often forced upon the terrified and helpless children. A most marked contrast is Wampole's Preparation, which, although it contains all the curative and flesh-producing properties of Cod Liver Oil, is entirely free from its taste, odor and appearance. In combination with this drug are the Hypophosphites Compound and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry Bark. In building up pale, puny, emaciated children, particularly those troubled with Anæmia, Scrofula, Rickets, and Bone and Blood Diseases, nothing equals the Preparation. Its tonic qualities are of the highest order. It creates new blood, strong muscles, sound teeth, solid bones, and enables them to grow up into healthy men and women, for cures made in the young are economical and permanent. It is a product of modern study and science. Druggists everywhere sell it.

Wicker Furniture

Is well adapted to this climate because it is cool and light, at the same time strong and serviceable. No establishment in Honolulu has such a stock of this ware as we carry, and the quality is good.

ALL ALONG THE DOCKS

ARCHER AND C. D. BRYANT ARRIVE FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

The Iriquois Fast in the Mud—Petrel and Wild Swan Coaling Up—Kenilworth's Fast Time.

The Mikahala arrived from Lahaina this morning with 5151 bags of sugar.

The old bark Rosalie was run ashore on the reef this morning, and will there be broken up and sold for firewood. She has already been stripped of everything of value.

The U. S. S. Petrel is coaling up this morning, preparatory to sailing on Thursday, probably, for Yokohama. In addition to ninety tons in her bunkers, she will take thirty tons on deck for the long voyage.

The Wild Swan will commence to coal up tomorrow for a long cruise in the South Seas, on which she will probably sail on Sunday or Monday. She has room for 100 tons. An officer stated this morning that the Wild Swan will take all mail for the Fanning and Gilbert groups put on board Friday night.

Capt. Fitzgerald will go back in the Helene when she leaves tomorrow, Capt. Freeman returning to the Like-like and Capt. Wiesbath to the Claudine as first officer. There promises to be trouble on the Helene in consequence. The crew are rebellious against Fitzgerald and say they will not work the vessel if he is in command.

The schooner William Bowden hauled alongside the Mail dock to discharge her cargo of coal. Capt. Fjerem had an experience with a midnight prowler similar to that of Capt. Bruhn, of the Kaula. The fellow entered the captain's room while the latter was asleep, but only made his escape after he had been given a sound thrashing.

The Iriquois, while backing out into the stream, got fast in the mud off the Irigard wharf this morning. There is a schooner alongside to discharge sugar, but she cannot take it. It looks very much as if the Iriquois is hard and fast until high tide tomorrow morning, and there is a chance that she may not get off then until she lightens cargo.

The Archer, Capt. Calhoun, arrived this morning, eighteen days from San Francisco. She brings 845 tons of general cargo to Castle & Cooke, and a deck load of forty mules, and five horses. The Archer experienced no heavy weather on the trip, light winds prevailing. William Higby and family, E. M. Boronua and William Morton were the only passengers.

Capt. Colly, former mate of the C. D. Bryant, brought the vessel into port this morning, after a pleasant run of seventeen days from the Golden Gate. Capt. Lee resigned his command in San Francisco. The Bryant brings 1300 tons of general cargo to H. Hackfeld & Co., and is clock full. Cap. Colly is accompanied by his wife, and Bernard Gallagher and Kate Gallagher came as passengers.

The Kenilworth hauled alongside the Oceanic docks this morning and commenced to discharge ballast. It is expected that she will be ready to receive sugar by Friday and as the cargo is all in sight she ought to be away for New York in two weeks' time. The Kenilworth now holds the record time from New York, via San Francisco. She left New York 144 days ago, calling a San Francisco to discharge a full general cargo, take on 1000 tons of ballast and ship a new crew, and running down here in clipper time.

A Famous Brew

HE KEPT THE RECEIPT.

And an Unjust Suspicion, Eighteen Years Old, Was Dispelled.

"That time when I was dumped and robbed in the house of my friends," said the old politician, "I was so disgusted that I pulled up stakes and decided to try a new community in the west. While I was out there prospecting for a location I came across a country judge whom I had known as a boy. He had stolen my knife, my rabbits and my pigeons. He became incorrigible and was sent to the reform school. It was the popular verdict that he would never be any good, and he was held up as a terrible example to the rest of us boys."

"I thought it my duty to give the good people out there a warning and took a prominent man of the place into my confidence. He had implicit faith in the squire and believed him as good a man as they had in the state."

"It's easily tested," I said, "and you can't afford to have a dishonest man in his position. Here's a promissory note given me 20 years ago, and I indorsed it at the time. I loaned that fellow money to get out of town and turn over a new leaf. He vowed by all that's good that he'd repay me, and this is all I have to show for my investment. If he's an honest man, he'll make some settlement."

"We'll see," said the squire's friend. In an hour they came back together, and the squire gave my hand a wring that started the tears. "I paid that paper 18 years ago," he declared. "Here's the receipt. I wondered why you never wrote me." There it was. With it was a letter from the man that was then my lawyer, saying that the note had been mislaid and that the receipt would serve.

"In five days the squire and I were back to the old town. The man who had been the nomination from under me was the rascally lawyer to whom the money had been paid. You should have heard the squire comb the squire down and then make him resign in my favor. We don't need men any more honest than that same justice of the peace that I suspected."—Detroit Free Press.

Of the Same Mind.

"It's a shame!" cried the young wife. "Not a thing in the house fit to eat. I'm going right home to papa."

"If you don't mind, dear," said the husband, reaching for his hat, "I'll go with you."—Yonkers Statesman.

He wasn't telling her a thing but the old, old story. Yet he held his audience for hours.—Detroit Journal.

Two years ago R. J. Warren, a druggist at Pleasant Brook, N. Y., bought a small supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sums up the result as follows: "At that time the goods were unknown in this section; today Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a household word." It is the same in hundreds of communities. Where ever the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy become known the people will have nothing else. For sale by all druggists and dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for H. I.
